

Quality Assured

Our hotel is judged not only by our quality assessment team, but also by respected organizations such as the AA and Tourism Grading Council. That means you can look forward to exceptional customer service, high quality facilities and a warm, friendly welcome wherever you go.

To give you an idea of the effort that went in to building this hotel, each of the rooms have been finalized by an art painting by one of the shareholders, to give it that warm feeling of being home away from home

The aforementioned establishments have graded our accommodation as highly recommendable which means we present a product which offers high levels of professionalism and attention to service.

STAR RATING 3 STAR